The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

Lord of love, we rejoice in the wonder and humility we discover in breaking this bread. We give thanks for the invitation to join you here. As we receive the bread, set our hearts on loving ways, and set our minds and hands to building the best into our daily living.

We are grateful for this cup Father. For its calling us to remember the cost of our redemption. For its reminding us the cost was met with love. For its judging of the way we live. You have touched this cup with the spirit of your Son. Touch our lives with the spirit of thanksgiving and celebration. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
