Prelude		Card
	The Word
Silent Meditation		2 Peter 1:16
	For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

	Psalm 25:2-3; Psalm 119:114; Psalm 147:3; Lamentations 3:20-23; Habakkuk 3:16-19
	In you I trust, O my God. Do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.
	No one whose hope is in you will ever be put to shame, but they will be put to shame who are treacherous without excuse.
	You are my refuge and my shield; I have put my hope in your word.
	He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
	I will remember them, and my soul is downcast within me. Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope:
	Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
	I trembled inside when I heard all this; my lips quivered with fear. My legs gave way beneath me, and I shook in terror.
	I will wait quietly for the coming day when disaster will strike the people who invade us.
			Even though the fig trees have no blossoms, and there are no grapes on the vine; even though the olive crop fails, and the fields lie empty and barren; even though the flocks die in the fields, and the cattle barns are empty, yet I will rejoice in the LORD! I will be joyful in the God of my salvation.
			The Sovereign LORD is my strength! He will make me as surefooted as a deer and bring me safely over the mountains.
