1 Corinthians 11:23-26

*For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said,
"This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."
In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying,
"This cup is the new covenant in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."
For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.*

The Story and the Thanksgiving

The tradition which I hand on to you, comes from the Lord himself.

THE LOAF

For on the night of his arrest, Jesus took bread, gave God thanks and then broke it, saying,

This is my body that is for you. Do this and remember me.

For the bread we eat day by day:

God be blessed for ever.

For the bread of the great day that feeds us for new life:

God be blessed for ever.

Jesus, true and living bread, touch all our days and fit us for your new day's dawning:

God be blessed for ever.

Nourish us with bread for the journey, disciples in your way this day and always.

Come, Holy Spirit; feed us with your love and renew us with your life. We eat to remember.

THE CUP

In the same way, Jesus took the cup after supper and said, This is the cup of the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, and remember me. For the wine that makes hearts glad:

God be blessed for ever.

For the wine that seals the covenant:

God be blessed for ever.

Jesus, true and living vine, make hearts glad and lives safe.

God be blessed for ever.

Enliven us with the wine of the kingdom, this day and always.

Come, Holy Spirit; fill us with your love and renew us with your life We drink to remember.
